

STATISTICS

Year 2025

In 2025, total cargo throughput at the Port of Nagoya was 159 million tons, increasing by 1.7% over the previous year. It has successfully handled the largest cargo volume in Japan for the 24th consecutive years.

The total cargo throughput in international trade was 113 million tons (up 1.4%).

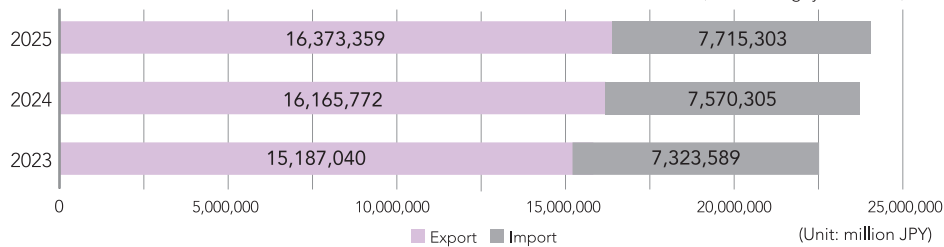

Major export items were completed automobiles, automobile parts, industrial machinery, steel materials and miscellaneous chemical products.

Major import items were LNG, iron ore, crude oil, coal and wearable items.

Containerized cargo trade reached 47.1 million tons (up1.8%), with the total number of containers at 2.79 million TEU (up 1.1%). With 1.39 million TEU outgoing (up 1.4%) and 1.39 million TEU incoming (up 0.8%), container trade at the Port of Nagoya is well balanced.

Total cargo value 2023-2025

(Source: Nagoya Customs)

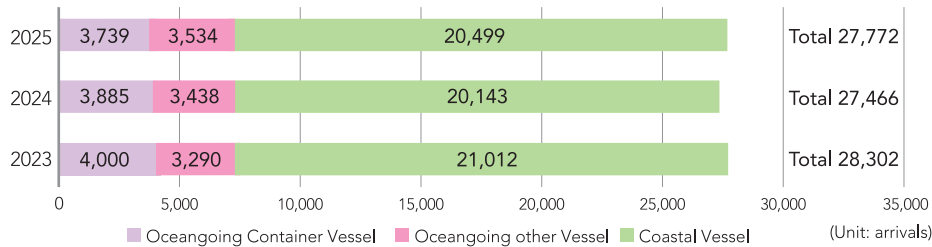

Vessel arrivals 2025

	Number	G/T
Oceangoing vessels	7,273	176,973,072
(Container vessels)	(3,739)	(76,838,794)
Coastal vessels	20,499	38,914,342
Total	27,772	215,887,414

*Total figures for container vessels are included in the figures for oceangoing vessels.

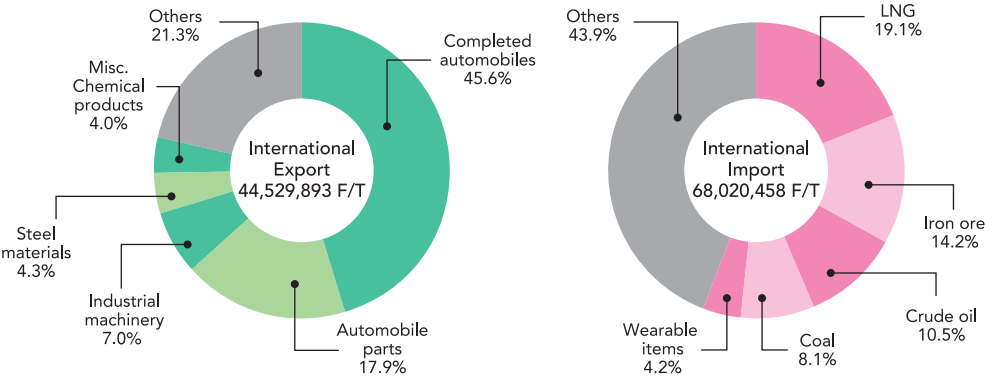

Vessel arrivals 2023-2025

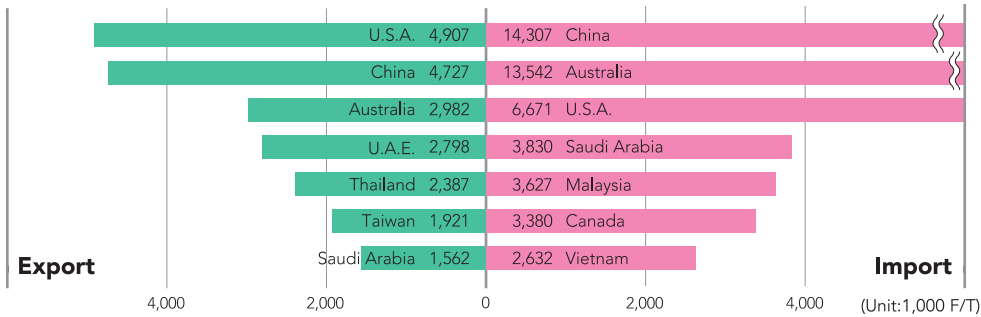

Cargo throughput 2025

	Export	Import	Total
International Trade (F/T)	44,529,893	68,020,458	112,550,351
Domestic Trade (F/T)	23,484,962	23,344,670	46,829,632
Total (F/T)	68,014,855	91,365,128	159,379,983

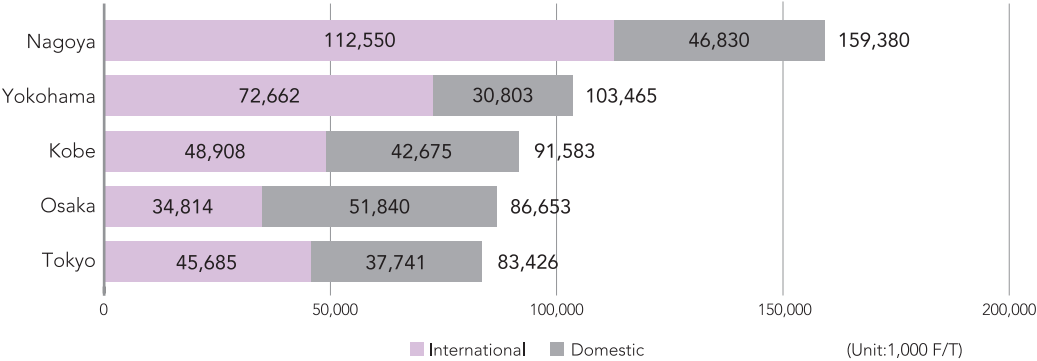

Main trading items 2025

Main trading partners 2025

Comparison among major Japanese ports 2025

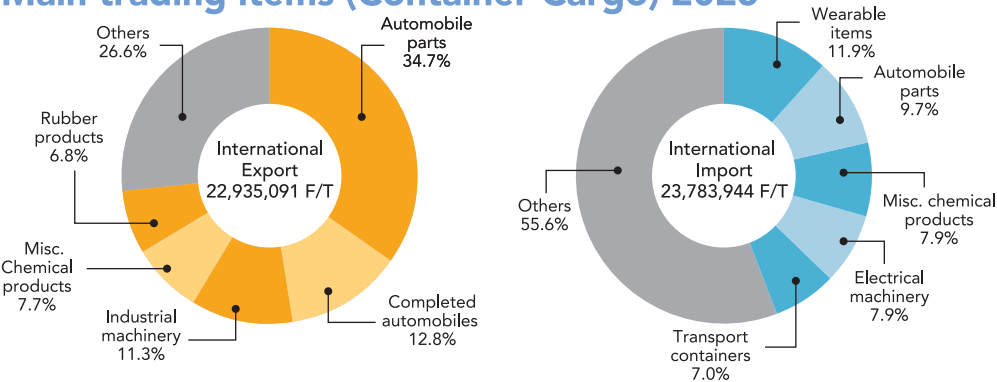

Throughput data other than those for the Port of Nagoya are provisional.

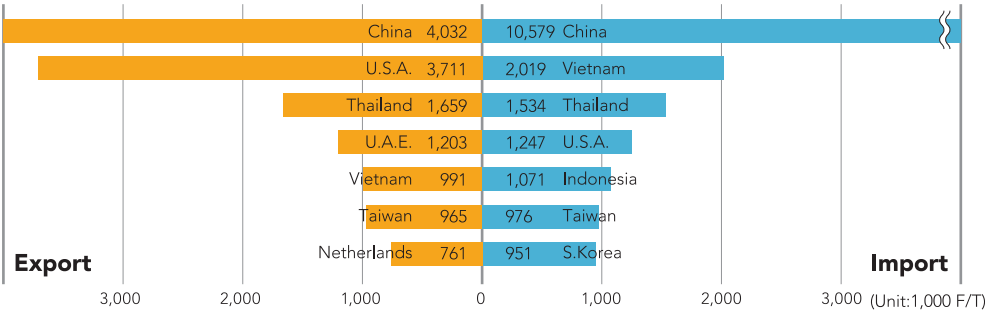

Container throughput 2025

	Export	Import	Total
International Trade (TEU)	1,365,379	1,273,153	2,638,533
Domestic Trade (TEU)	27,668	120,246	147,914
Total (TEU)	1,393,047	1,393,399	2,786,446
International Trade (F/T)	22,935,091	23,783,944	46,719,035
Domestic Trade (F/T)	252,020	116,138	368,158
Total (F/T)	23,187,111	23,900,082	47,087,193

Main trading items (Container Cargo) 2025

Main trading partners for container trade 2025

Cargo/Container throughput 2016-2025

